

Patrick M. Liedtke

Born in Frankfurt/Main (Germany), married, four children. Finished his schooling in Madrid (Spain), university studies of Electrical Engineering at the University of Darmstadt (Germany) and Economics at the University of Darmstadt (Germany) and the London School of Economics (England). European capital markets and economics research, European Equities Research, SG Warburg, London (England). Then economic research on employment and economics as Head of Project for a Report to the Club of Rome, Bilbao (Spain). From 1996 to 1998, Director of the Independent Macroeconomic Research Bureau, Frankfurt (Germany), specialising in labour, pensions and insurance economics. From 1996 to 1998, collaborating with the International Association for the Study of Insurance Economics (The Geneva Association), Geneva (Switzerland). From 1998 to 2000, Deputy and Vice-Secretary General of The Geneva Association; since January 2001, Secretary General and Managing Director of The Geneva Association.

Also Surveillance Board Member of IT Future AG, Frankfurt; Surveillance Board Member of Zwiesel Kristallglas AG, Zwiesel; Chairman of the Silver Workers' Institute, Geneva; Director of the Applied Services Economic Centre (ASEC), Geneva; Board Member of the European Group of Risk and Insurance Economists (EGRIE); Editor-in-Chief of the Geneva Papers on Risk and Insurance – Issues and Practice, published in London; Editor of the Newsletter on Insurance and Finance, published in Geneva. Member of the Advisory Committee of the Wharton School's Center for Risk Management and Decision Processes (WCRMDP) in Pennsylvania, of the International Advisory Board of the China Center for Insurance and Social Security in Beijing, and of several other expert groups.