

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Geneva Association is pleased to announce a special half issue on

Insurance and the Credit Crisis

of

The Geneva Papers on Risk and Insurance – Issues and Practice

January 2010

We encourage you to submit contributions related to the following areas:

- Analysis of the impact of the credit crisis on insurance companies: regional, by business line, by type of company (mutual, plc, integrated financial player, etc.)
- The role of insurance companies during the crisis with respect to financial stability
- Lessons to be learned from the crisis for insurance operators: in finance, in risk management, in strategic orientation, in governance, etc.
- The consequences of the crisis for insurance supervision and regulation: specific insurance regulation and supervision as well as wider norms for financial services
- The possible changes in the competitive landscape following the crisis: within the insurance sector and in respect to other financial services providers
- The consequences of the crisis on risk transfer mechanisms such as reinsurance, retrocession and insurance securitization.

Suggestions for other topics may be considered by the editors.

All contributions will go through a refereeing process.

Papers should be submitted electronically via the website of The Geneva Papers (<http://gpp.msubmit.net/cgi-bin/main.plex>) by 15 July 2009 at the latest.
