

Etudes et Dossiers No. 227

Selected Papers from the MORE 14th Seminar on “Global Climate Change”

London, 16-17 September 1999

- The ETAN (European Technology Assessment Network) Research Programme of DG XII of the European Commission, summary by Uno Svedin
- Seven Ways the Insurance/Banking Sector Can Help Us Cope With Climate Change, by Jim Skea
- Forecasting Regional Changes – The Climate Model at IFU, by Harald Kunstmann
- Private Sector Challenges, Intergovernmental Solutions, summary by Paul Hofseth
- Technology Transfer From the Scientific Community to the Insurance Industry and the Practical Challenges Arising From Climate Change, by James Orr
- Kyoto Protocol : New Market Opportunities or New Risks for Financial Institutions ?, by Josef Janssen and Heinrich Hugenschmidt
- Climate Change and The Insurance Industry, by Andrew F. Dlugolecki
- S.I.P.-The Sustainability Investment Partners in Practise, by Dirk P. Kohler
- Alternative Energy Investments : Low Carbon Investment Strategies, by Dana Levy
- Global Climate Change : Uncovering Hidden Investment Risk and Opportunity, by Martin Wittaker
- Including Environmental-Rating in Asset Management, by Dirk Reinhard
- The Environment, Banking and Developing Countries, by Marcus Wagner and Walter Wehrmeyer
- Climate Change and the Challenge for Research and Technological Development (RTD) Policy, by an ETAN Expert Working Group for the European Commission