From 2001–2015 Jad worked for AXA France in several leadership roles, including Corporate Secretary, Human Resources Director, CEO of AXA Entreprises and Deputy CEO of AXA France.

Jad started his career as a consultant at McKinsey & Company, where he specialised in financial services. He is a graduate of the HEC Business School in France and holds an MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

Butch Bacani

Programme Leader
UN Environment Programme's
Principles for Sustainable Insurance
Initiative

---

Butch Bacani leads the UN Environment Programme's Principles for Sustainable Insurance Initiative (PSI), the largest collaboration between the United Nations (UN) and the insurance industry. Endorsed by the UN Secretary-General and insurance industry CEOs, the PSI is a global framework and initiative for the industry to address sustainability issues – as risk managers, insurers and investors – and to build resilient, inclusive and sustainable communities and economies on a healthy planet.

Butch leads initiatives that contribute to achieving the Paris Climate Agreement, UN Convention on Biological Diversity, and the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Butch was part of InsuranceERM's inaugural list of the most influential people leading and shaping the insurance industry's response to climate change.

Christoph Baumann

Envoy for Sustainable Finance
State Secretariat for International
Finance

Christoph Baumann is Envoy for Sustainable Finance at the State Secretariat for International Finance (SIF). In this role, he leads the Swiss government's sustainable finance activities, ranging from negotiations in multilateral bodies and bilateral relations to domestic regulatory projects.

Barend van Bergen

Sustainability Partner, EY-Parthenon
& Global Long Term Value
Methodology Leader, EY

Barend is a Sustainability Partner in the Strategy and Transactions team in the Netherlands and the EY Global Long Term Value Methodology Leader. He is focused on advising clients in the Europe West Region on sustainability and ESG-oriented strategies that seek to create both corporate and societal value.

Barend has over 25 years of experience in advising businesses on sustainability and ESG. In addition to his client work, he is a member of the EY teams working with the World Economic Forum International Business Council, who agreed on a common set of 21 core and 34 expanded metrics that help organisations to report on sustainable value creation.

Previously, he worked with the Coalition for Inclusive Capitalism on the Embankment Project for Inclusive Capitalism, which brought together nine companies and 22 investors representing USD 30 trillion assets under management (www.epic-value.com). Barend is a global leader in impact measurement. He has supported a range of organisations to measure and quantify their impact on society, assess the link and correlation to financial value and apply the insights to strategy development, decision-making, fact-based stakeholder dialogues and disclosures.

Barend has (co-)authored several long-term value and sustainability publications and was a part-time visiting fellow at the Yale School of Management from 2016 to 2017. He holds a degree in industrial engineering and innovation sciences from the Eindhoven University of Technology.

Over the years Wilma has held various domestic and international roles at companies such as Achmea, one of Europe's largest cooperative insurers, based in the Netherlands. Wilma has served as Director of Marketing and Sales of leading brands such as Avero Achmea and Levob and Director of the Achmea Academy, an award-winning training and knowledge centre for the company's employees and clients.

Line Hestvik

Chief Sustainability Officer
Allianz

Line Hestvik is the Allianz Group's first Chief Sustainability Officer responsible for implementing the Group's global sustainability strategy in all markets. As one of the world's largest financial service providers, Allianz seeks to act as a catalyst for a more sustainable future by offering products and solutions with positive climate and societal impact across the different businesses of the Group.

From 2013 to 2021, Line headed the Global P&C business of Allianz, improving excellence in pricing, underwriting, products and claims. Prior to joining Allianz, Line worked in the P&C industry in the Nordic region, her last role as Head of Private Customer Segment of If P&C. Having worked in finance and insurance for over 20 years, Line is passionate about leveraging the industry's competent and motivated employees to create strong societal impact to drive change for a more sustainable tomorrow.

Ekhosuehi Iyahun

Secretary General
Insurance Development Forum

Ekhosuehi Iyahun is the Secretary General of the Insurance Development Forum (IDF), a public-private partnership led by the insurance industry and supported by the World Bank, the UN and other international organisations, aiming to enhance the use of insurance to build greater resilience against disasters and to help achieve the UN's SDGs and Global 2030 Agenda.

Ekhosuehi has been directly involved in establishing and operationalising a number of pioneering initiatives including regional risk pools in Africa and the Caribbean, and the structuring of a novel tripartite agreement between the IDF, the UN Development Programme and the German Ministry of Economic Cooperation and Development to increase insurance protection in 20 climate-exposed countries.

At COP26 in Glasgow she steered the launch of IDF's hallmark Risk & Resilience Analytics programme focused on building risk analytics capability where it is needed the most.

Ekhosuehi is a graduate of the London School of Economics and Political Science and Harvard University, John F. Kennedy School of Government.

She was identified by Leader's magazine as one of 100 global resilience thought leaders. In 2021 she was appointed as a Non-Resident Senior Fellow of the Atlantic Council's Adrienne Arsht-Rockefeller Foundation Resilience Center.
