

The Geneva Papers on Risk and Insurance Call for papers

The Geneva Association is pleased to announce a special April 2023 issue of The Geneva Papers on Risk and Insurance – Issues and Practice on

Cyber Risks and Insurance

We encourage you to submit contributions related to the following areas:

- Modelling, empirical analysis and management of cyber risk
- Innovative ways to manage cyber risk through insurance
- The (economic) impacts of cyber risk on society and individuals
- Cyber terrorism, cyber warfare and state-sponsored cyber activity
- Insurability of cyber risk
- Re/insurance markets and insurance products to cover cyber risk
- The role of cyber insurance in incentivising corporate investments in loss prevention and resilience building
- Regulatory demands and global macroprudential standards for cyber risk
- Public-private partnerships to create cyber risk insurance pools
- The maturity path of the cyber insurance market
- Perceptions of cyber risk and cyber insurance
- Data availability and cyber underwriting decisions

Suggestions for other topics will be considered by the editors.

All contributions will go through a peer review process. The guest editors for this special issue are Prof. M. Martin Boyer (Power Corporation of Canada Research Chair at HEC Montréal) and Prof. Martin Eling (University of St. Gallen).

Papers should be submitted electronically via the website of The Geneva Papers (<https://www.editorialmanager.com/gpri/default.aspx>) by 8 April 2022 at the latest.

For further information on The Geneva Papers, visit <http://www.palgrave-journals.com/gpp/>.

For further information on this special issue, please contact Hannah Dean at hannah\_dean@genevaassociation.org.