The 2020 Geneva Association Ernst Meyer Prize – Call for Applications

The Geneva Association awards the prestigious Geneva Association Ernst Meyer Prize annually for university research work in the form of a doctoral thesis that makes a significant and original contribution to the study of risk and insurance economics. The Judging Committee for the Ernst Meyer Prize comprises Professor Christophe Courbage, Professor Andreas Richter, and Professor Richard Watt. A full list of past winners is available online.

The prize will be awarded at The Geneva Association’s Annual General Assembly to be held in New York City in May 2020.

Applications for the award should include all of the following:

- an electronic version (pdf) of the thesis
- an English language abstract of 1,000-1,200 words
- two recommendations (written in English), each providing a review of the submitted work
- curriculum vitae in English.

Further requirements:

- The thesis should have been accepted by the PhD Committee during the calendar year preceding the submission deadline.
- Submissions are possible in one of the following languages: English, French, Spanish, German.
- The prize is CHF 5,000.
- The deadline for applications for the 2020 Ernst Meyer Prize is 15 January 2020.

Applications should be addressed to secretariat@genevaassociation.org, or to The Geneva Association, “Ernst Meyer Prize”, General Secretariat, Talstrasse 70, CH-8